

Resource Management Planner | Auckland/Tauranga

Join an established and highly respected environmental consultancy with a nationwide presence. Driven by solving the important infrastructure and environmental challenges facing NZ, we are still growing and invite you to be part of our future. You will be working in a business that prides itself on our people-focused culture, our fun workplace, and our creative thinking and sound advice.

We are looking for a driven junior – intermediate resource management planner to provide input into a wide range of projects. Having a can-do attitude is a must as well as a keen desire to learn. You will be driven to enhance your career in joining PDP and be required to develop solutions but also navigate the challenges that might be encountered while working through the regulatory processes. You will be given the opportunity to work alongside a wide range of team members, amongst our national planning team, who will help you develop your skills and experience.

The Role

- Evaluate statutory and planning implications for various projects.
- Prepare resource consent applications and liaise with regional and local authority representatives.
- Prepare planning assessments for investigations, due diligence, plan policy/plan making and consent applications.
- Work with engineers and scientists and other technical specialists.
- Compile and coordinate AEEs.
- Learn by doing a variety of projects at any given time.

You will need

- Bachelor's degree (preferably with honours) in Resource Planning or a Postgraduate degree in Environmental Science/Natural Resource Management/Geography.
- 0-3 Years' experience in the planning industry.
- Working knowledge and understanding of regional and local authority planning in NZ.
- Strong verbal, inter-personal and written communication skills.
- A collegiate, team-player attitude.
- Please send your CV and cover letter to employment@pdp.co.nz
