

Junior/Intermediate Environmental Engineer (3 Waters) | Wellington

This is a great opportunity for a driven professional to join an established and highly respected environmental and engineering consultancy with a nationwide presence. With over 200 professionals, we aim to cover the entire range of environmental services in air, land and water. We have one of the most capable three-waters teams in New Zealand. We are growing our Water Infrastructure presence in the Wellington region and invite you to be part of our future.

We are looking for a junior/intermediate engineer with experience and passion in water, wastewater and stormwater (3 waters). You will be given the opportunity to work across a wide variety of projects with the best in class and further develop your skills and expertise. You will be working in a business that prides itself on our people-focused culture, our fun workplace, and our creative thinking and sound advice.

The Role

- Investigation, planning and design of water, wastewater and stormwater infrastructure.
- Preparation of high-quality design documentation and drawings for all projects working collaboratively with other designers and CAD / BIM / 3-D modelling teams.
- Be involved into the contract management including cost estimating, tender and contract preparation, construction monitoring and commissioning.
- Work across all PDP workgroups delivering to a wide range of clients from local authorities to private companies.
- Be coached and mentored by experienced senior engineers.

You will need

- Degree in Civil, Environmental or Natural Resources Engineering.
- 2- 5 years' experience in three-waters engineering investigation and design.
- Progressed towards obtaining Chartered Professional Engineer (CPEng).
- Strong verbal and written communication skills and excellent organisational skills.
- A collegiate, team-player attitude
- Please send your CV and Cover letter to employment@pdp.co.nz
